Securities to be Delivered by Mail

Please call the Development Office in advance. You will be asked to mail your unendorsed certificate(s) and Irrevocable Stock or Bond Power in separate envelopes and by registered mail, to:

American Mathematical Society
Development Office
201 Charles Street
Providence, RI 02904-2294

Note: In one of the Irrevocable Stock or Bond Power envelopes, also include this Donation Form. A separate Irrevocable Stock or Bond Power is required for each company and each class of shares or bonds.

Securities to be Delivered Electronically

The most frequently used and easiest method is a wire transfer through a broker or banker. Your broker or banker will ask you to sign their Irrevocable Stock or Bond Power to allow them to transfer your securities to AMS. See your broker or banker. The broker or banker will need the following information about the AMS account:

National Financial Services Corp.
DTC#0226
for the benefit of American Mathematical Society (AMS)
(Fed Tax Identification #05-0264797)
Attn: Scott Quattromani
AMS Account #Z31-048135
GTECH Center
10 Memorial Blvd., Suite 102
Providence, RI 02903

Your broker or banker may wish to speak with the AMS Development Office at (401) 455-4000 prior to proceeding.
